

Welcome to CUPE 218! As an employee of the Durham District School Board, you are represented by the Canadian Union of Public Employees (CUPE), Local 218.

CUPE Local 218 is made up of over 3,000 education workers employed by the Durham Catholic and District School Boards.

Working in Custodial and Maintenance, Office, Clerical, Technical, Educational Assistants, Outdoor Education and in Continuing Education and Cafeteria, our members help Durham Region schools run smoothly on a day-to-day basis.

The website has information regarding your Collective Agreement, Seniority, Newsletters, etc. to answer many of your questions. You can register for the website, cupe218.ca, and your CUPE email by contacting Sue Wilkinson at swilkinson@cupe218.ca or 905-571-7879

For Workplace injury/accident, illness or any other medical related issues including forwarding Dr. notes please call the CUPE office 905-571-7879 and your call will be directed to Carrie Boisvert, Disability Management Coordinator. All information is strictly confidential.

Each of the Bargaining Units is represented by a Chairperson who, along with the Bargaining Committee and Stewards, can assist you with additional questions that you may have. To get details about your Bargaining Committee and your Chairperson please contact the office at office@cupe218.ca or 905-571-7879.
